You can pretty much count on any product from Thatsanice! tasting fabulous. And, more important, compared to most soups you buy in the supermarket, this one contains a very low amount of sodium (140mg). We love this soup, but we don't love how much it costs -- $5.99 for 16oz! However, some retail stores carry it for $4.49. We think it's a steep price to pay for soup. Meanwhile, there are other healthy soups that taste great available for about half the price. Lower the price, and we think you've got a hit!
